HRP Group Joins WeVote Initiative to Promote Civic Engagement Ahead of 2024 Election

Philadelphia, PA – October 29, 2024 – HRP Group (HRP), the developer of The Bellwether District in South and Southwest Philadelphia, has joined major Pennsylvania-based employers and civic institutions to become a WeVote Partner, an initiative of the Philadelphia-based nonpartisan Committee of Seventy aimed at increasing voter participation and civic engagement. As a WeVote Partner, HRP is encouraging employees and stakeholders to become more involved in the democratic process and exercise their right to vote.

By joining WeVote, HRP commits to creating a workplace environment that encourages employees to vote in local, state, and national elections. Initiatives include providing interested employees with various nonpartisan resources such as confirmation of key election dates, details about voter registration opportunities, and information on the importance of making their voices heard at the ballot box.

“We believe that civic engagement is one of the most powerful ways to make a difference in the communities we serve,” said HRP Group CEO Roberto Perez. “By partnering with WeVote, we are empowering our employees to be informed, active citizens, and we are proud to support this initiative.”

The WeVote program is designed to help businesses and organizations promote voter participation through tailored resources, flexible policies, and a focus on nonpartisan education.
